3 Questions With a CSI Employee - Matt Capps, Manufacturing Engineer

1. What one of your favorite piece of furniture have ever seen CSI make? I would have to say the O'Neill American Legion Flag Display case. (Pictured Below)
2. What's your favorite part of the job? The learning process. I find great satisfaction in the design aspect of my job, but first and foremost being part of a team of talented workers: Drafers, shop floor workers, and CSI staff. I've learned a great deal from the people with whom I have worked.
3. Do you go on-site to visit with potential customers? I do, regarding projects of larger size and scope. My participation is initiated in the early stages of these projects, creating layouts and possibly some custom designs. I also try to attend the delivery of the finished goods.
